Ben Billington was telling us about an odd occurrence the other day.

He was out at the land fill site where normally the only things that are burned are tree limbs, old tires, etc. that they cannot cover up with dirt.

Nothing had been burned for several days so they piled up a lot of tree limbs and about 250 old tires.

It was a cool day and no wind so conditions were good for burning of all of which was dry.

Ben says the stuff burned with increasing heat and as the center of the blaze got hotter, it pulled some of the cool air in from around the fire, and a tiny whirlwind developed. (This is how a whirlwind got started down in the southern Atlantic when cool air hit the warm air.)

Anyway the whirlwind got larger and larger as it pulled the cool air. (Continued On Page Three)

Point System Penalties To Be Stiffened

FRANKFORT, Ky. (UP) - Gov. Edward T. Breathitt said today that he will sign an executive order next Tuesday morning stiffening the penalties for traffic violations under the state's point system for license suspensions.

Under the new system, certain violations can result in license suspensions for a first offense. These include racing and speeding more than 25 miles per hour over the posted or legal limit. Some criticism of the new system has been voiced on grounds that the first-offense suspension provision might constitute an unconstitutional deprivation of property without due process of law—and thus invalidate the whole point system.

Changes in the point system under the new order will include: Racing—from six points to automatic suspension of 90 days for the first offense, one year for the second offense, and three years for the third; Passing a stopped school bus—from four points to five; Passing in a no-passing zone—from four points to five; Speeding—Less than 16 miles per hour over limit, unchanged at three points; from 16 to 25 miles over the limit, six points; more than 25 miles per hour above limit, 90-day to three-year suspensions; Moving violation resulting in accident—from four points to five; Running a stop sign—Four points to three; Operating a motor vehicle in violation of restrictions—Automatic 90-day suspension; Attempting to elude a peace officer or preventing an officer from making arrest, for a hazardous violation—Automatic 90-day suspension.

The new point schedule will take effect immediately when the governor signs the order, scheduled for 10 a. m. (EST). Under the point system, administered by the Department of Public Safety, a driver accumulating 12 points within a three-year period is subject to suspension of his license for one year. The new point schedule was drawn up after a study made by the Governor's Coordinating Committee on Traffic Safety, in conjunction with the Insurance Institute for Highway Safety.

Committeemen For ASCS To Be Elected

County and community committeemen who will administer ASCS programs beginning October 1, 1964, will be elected by farmers in September according to announcement by H. B. Fulton, Chairman of the Calloway County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

In order to have the greatest possible participation by farmers in the election, farmers will cast ballots for their nominees at a polling place designated in each ASCS community. Boundary lines for ASCS communities in the same as the boundary lines for Magisterial districts. September 21 has been set as the date elections will be held and farmers may cast ballots at the designated polling places at any time between 8:00 a.m. and 5:30 p.m.

Mr. Fulton, Chairman of the County Committee pointed out that every effort will be made by community committeemen, county committeemen and farmers to see that the most active farmers, who are best qualified for community committee work and who will be representative of the various sections and types of agriculture in the community, are nominated and elected. The community committee in each community will determine a list of not less than six nominees. Additional nominees may be elected to be placed on voting ballots by petition signed by six or more eligible voters. These additional nominees must be received by the ASCS office not later than August 21.

Any farm tenant, operator or owner of legal voting age may vote in the community elections if he is now participating or is eligible to participate in any of the farm programs administered by the county ASCS committee.

As in the past, the county committee will be elected in a county convention to be held at the county ASCS office on September 25. Persons elected as chairmen of the community committees will assemble and elect a county committee according to Mr. Fulton.

The county committee consists of three members and two alternates and they, along with the three newly elected community committees, will administer the farm programs in each community which will take office on October 1, 1964, and serve for one year.

County Chairman Fulton urged that all eligible farmers make plans to cast a ballot on September 21 in community elections. The ASCS county and community committees play a vital role in the agricultural affairs of the county, and it is important that each farmer give serious consideration to the persons elected to these posts.

Film On Food Is Shown To Rotary Club

A film entitled "Food Is Power" was shown to the Murray Rotary Club yesterday by Mrs. Macon Blankenship. Mrs. Blankenship, associated with the Regional Library here, was introduced by E. B. Hooten who was in charge of the program replacing Harvey Ellis who was ill.

The film, narrated by Chet Huntley, depicted the food production power of the United States. He attributed part of the freedom and growth to this great ability to produce food.

Huntley indicated that a high protein diet, enjoyed by citizens of America, brought health and happiness to its millions of citizens.

He showed that the soy bean is a primary source of protein which is fed to livestock and poultry, which also needs protein for healthful living.

The film pointed out that Americans spend about 25 per cent of their income on food while people in some other nations spend from 30 per cent to 90 per cent.

Mrs. Blankenship indicated that the services of the local library are always available to the clubs and organizations of the city and county.

Don Shelton Charges Breach Against Coach

Murray State College football coach Don Shelton was campaigning today for a boycott of the East-West high school all-star games on the University of Kentucky campus each year, suggesting that recruiting activities surrounding the games cost him a prize prospect.

Shelton accused University of Kentucky coach Charlie Bradshaw of a breach of faith in signing up

Coach Don Shelton

Crittenden County tackle Dwight Little last Wednesday. Little previously had signed an Ohio Valley Conference grant-in-aid with Murray.

Bradshaw said Kentucky stepped into the picture because Vanderbilt University also was after Little, and he felt that if the boy was going to play Southeastern Conference football, he should do it at Kentucky rather than Vanderbilt.

The Ohio Valley Conference is not a party to the national agreement under which letters of intent or grant-in-aid contracts signed by a player at a school of any conference which is a party to the agreement become binding on all the other schools.

OVC Commissioner Art Guepp was quoted as saying his conference would consider adhering to the national agreement next year, and probably would decide to do so.

A girl to the situation was the fact that Kentucky also had an outstanding athletic prospect during the week of preparation for the all-star game — and to an Ohio Valley Conference school.

The petition, carrying signatures of more than 1,000 residents, was filed with Judge Gloor Thursday. The county judge said he would study the petition before ordering the referendum election, but commented, "I think the best thing is for the voters to decide."

Graves County has operated under its present eight-magistrate form of government since it was organized in 1823.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:

"Stars In My Crown," the entertaining drama that depicts the colorful history of West Kentucky, has about two more weeks to run. In viewing our attendance records, those of us who have watched the show on many nights are saddened to realize that we are not for added support of tourists in our area, the show would have closed weeks ago.

In spite of the various special events we have planned to boost local and area attendance at the outdoor drama, the response has been more than disappointing.

Until now, we have not had the heart to tell the hard-working cast that the reason for the poor attendance is because many people in this area have not taken the opportunity to view what discriminating critics have called "one of the best outdoor dramas in America." Dudley Saunders, the drama critic of the Louisville Times, said that "Stars In My Crown" takes second place only to the highly acclaimed "Book of Job" that, you know, has appeared before and since all over the world. We have a justifiable right to be proud of "Stars In My Crown" because it is a story of the history of our area and those great individuals who have brought fame to our region.

Within the next two weeks the tourist season will reach its peak. As a result of our promotional activities directed to the tourist trade, we know that we will get our fair share of attendance from them. If only we could get the same amount of support from the citizens in our area, we could possibly end up the season without a deficit, but, unless we get this area support, it appears that a handful of people will have to bear the burden of maintaining what experts have called a quarter of a million dollar industry for West Kentucky, in just two months.

Your newspaper has been extremely cooperative in publicizing the drama. The radio and television stations in the area, like you, have given us more free advertising than we could ever hope to buy.

May we impose upon you to again call attention to our problem in your next edition. You will know that there are hundreds of areas in Kentucky that would welcome such a tourist attraction as we have in "Stars In My Crown." Since we are fortunate to have this beautiful amphitheatre and this magnificent outdoor drama, won't you make a special appeal to your readers to give us their whole-hearted support in these last two weeks that remain. The show closes on August 20.

Approximately 25 Families To Be Included In City Population

Action was taken last night by the Murray City Council to take a small area on the northeastern boundary of the city, into the city limits. The area involved extends out the north highway to the blinker light. The taking in of this section will "square up" the city limits at that point.

Generally the city limits line will now extend from the back edge, or north edge, of the Ryan property directly east until it strikes the Chamber of Commerce industrial park area.

Efforts were made some time ago to take this area in when other sections along the north edge of the city were taken in, but some complications arose which delayed it.

Approximately 25 families will be affected by the annexation to the city. Agreement between the people involved and the Murray Planning Commission was reached recently at a hearing. It was agreed that the city could provide city water in the immediate future while the question of sewerage would take some time.

The action was set in motion last night to make the annexation a reality. This will include a public hearing before the city council.

Mayor Ellis said that this would extend the city limits out the Benton Highway to the blinker light and would include the old McKee home, but not the new one.

Two city policemen turned in their resignations. Sergeant Gene Parker will go into private business and Patrolman J. O. Edwards gave up his reason personal health problems.

The council named Max Edwards Morris as a replacement for Sergeant Parker whose resignation is effective as of August 16. Mr. Edwards' resignation is effective as of September 1. A replacement for him will be named in the near future. Those persons who wish to

Bass And Crappie Tops In Fishing

FRANKFORT, Ky. (UP) - Black bass, white bass and crappie continued to top fishing activity at most Kentucky impoundments today, the state Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources reported.

Recent cool weather dropped water temperatures 2 to 4 degrees, the department added.

Kentucky Lake - Bluegill are reported best on worms along deep banks. Pair to good catches of catfish are reported. Crappie and white bass in the main channel are being taken by still fishing minnows. Below the dam: Catfish are doing best on live bait and cut bait. Some crappie and white bass are biting on do-jigs and minnows.

Watershed Division has put up the funds for curbs and gutters in the sub-division. This will be done under the recent council policy of the city putting in the curbs and gutters at $150 per foot with residents also paying engineering costs. A similar proposal is also progressing on Story Avenue.

Bids were accepted by the Murray Water and Sewer System for work on the new million gallon water reservoir on Elm Street. The bid of Ulmer Equipment Company of St. Louis was accepted for valves for the reservoir. The bid was slightly over $8,000 and included 15 18" valves with the rest being 10" valves.

The Goldcoke Company of St. Louis won the bid on forms for the ceiling of the reservoir. The forms will be rented for $500 per month with the system anticipating using the forms for about six weeks.

Councilman Prentice Lassiter reported that paving will begin on city streets on Monday. The Air Force Reserve will move back to Murray from Owensboro and will use one room at the city hall two times each month for their meetings.

be on the city police force should make application to city clerk Stanford Andrus.

Dr. Will Frank Steely appeared before the council as president of the Jackson Purchase Historical Society. He asked aid from the council in preserving a log house which has been reported as the first courthouse of Calloway County. The house, constructed in 1820 also served as the land buying office for the entire purchase area. It was located at Wadesboro and later moved to Murray when Marshall County was made up from the then Calloway County.

The house has been located at Fourth and Elm Streets and has one room of a home there. When the house was razed recently, the cabin came to light.

Dr. Steely said that preserving the house would preserve a part of the history of the county and that it could serve as a tourist attraction, would serve as a link to the past for children of the county, and would be a point of pride for all citizens.

The council voted to pay up to $200 on the purchase, and removal of the house.

It will be placed on a concrete slab, probably on the college campus.

Bids were submitted for the chairs for the new arrangement in the city council chamber, but they were not opened since no bids were received on the horseshoe-like cabinet arrangement.

The Tappan Company, Murray Division, will replace the gas range used by city firemen, with a new modern Tappan gas range. The company is making the change at no charge to the city. Mayor Ellis will write a letter of appreciation to the company.

Councilman Macon Blankenship asked that the cemetery street extending north from Seventh Street be paved. The council appropriated $800 for paving the street, as far as this amount will go. Councilman Blankenship urged that the city council contribute a 200x200 foot plot at 10th and Payne Streets, in the city park, for the location of a proposed library building for the local regional library. He pointed out that recent legislation provided that if 51 per cent of the voters in the last general election signed a petition asking for a library tax, the Board of Education would then be bound to levy it. Library however must find a proper site for a library building first. Federal aid is expected on the building itself and the tax would support the operation.

The council voted to refer this issue to the park committee of the council, the mayor, attorney and Councilman Jack Belote.

John Kimmel was named as a permanent employee in the Sanitation Department to replace Tommy Williams. The division has put up the funds for curbs and gutters in the sub-division. This will be done under the recent council policy of the city putting in the curbs and gutters at $150 per foot with residents also paying engineering costs. A similar proposal is also progressing on Story Avenue.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

FRIENDLY FIRES

Fire is both friend and enemy. It warms our homes and destroys our forests, cooks our food and threatens our lives. Essayist Thomas Carlyle, in a single sentence, described it as the "usefulness of all servants" and "the frightfulness of all masters."

This dual nature of fire has given birth to a quaint legal doctrine in the field of insurance.

A typical fire insurance policy protects you against "loss by fire." But years ago, courts began to wonder whether those words really meant what they said. How about the lamb chops that a housewife burns in her oven? Or the logs a man burns in his fireplace? Or even the tobacco he burns in his cigar?

In each case, something of value is indeed destroyed by fire. Yet, surely, the insurance company should not be expected to pay for this kind of a loss.

So judges started making an exception for what they called the "friendly" fire. A friendly fire is one that is behaving itself, burning right where it belongs. For the damage it may do, you ordinarily cannot collect fire insurance.

One result of this doctrine might surprise you. Suppose you unwittingly drop a wrist watch into a waste basket. Then, you empty the basket into an incinerator or furnace, where the watch is destroyed by fire. Does your fire insurance policy cover the loss? Almost without exception the courts have said no, because the loss was caused by a friendly fire—burning where and as it was intended to burn.

Of course, a fire that starts out friendly may later turn hostile. Flames, friendly when confined to a fireplace, become hostile when they escape to a nearby curtain.

The distinction may become pretty fine. In one case, a rug was charred by a smoldering cigarette that had fallen from an ash tray to the floor. But when the home owner tried to collect insurance, the company demurred on the ground that this was a friendly fire. The court, the fire had never escaped from its original container: the cigarette paper.

However, the court decided that the original container was not the cigarette paper but the ash tray. Since the fire had definitely escaped from the ash tray, it had become hostile. So the home owner collected for the damage to his rug.

"GHOULISH CASE" — Former actor George Murphy, Republican candidate for senator in California, tells reporters in Washington that appointment of Pierre Salinger, his opponent, to the Senate is a "ghoulish case" that should be rejected as "legal nullity." He stands at door of the Senate Subcommittee on Privileges and Elections, which is considering Salinger's appointment.

SEEN AND HEARD....

gen filled air into the center of the blaze, and the fire got hotter and hotter.

The whirlwind got larger and you could feel the air rushing by you to get to the center Rex said.

The force of the winds became so great that tin cans were slammed against a small shed then five gallon buckets were carried to heights of 100 feet.

The bulldozer operator, Rex and Bill Cain had to get behind the shed to escape the bombardment of cans and other debris Rex said, as the situation almost became terrifying.

Sheets of cardboard were carried aloft by the fierce winds which had developed from the tiny whirlwind.

This same kind of situation developed in World War II when fire bombs were rained on enemy cities. As the fires grew larger, they pulled oxygen in from the surrounding areas including bomb shelters, and folks were found in the shelters later, dead from a lack of oxygen.

City Police have not used the radar for the past several days because of vacations, etc. They have practiced with it, to increase their facility in handling it however.

Of course traffic has fallen off sharply with the college letting out. City Police will be back to full force by the time school starts however and the radar unit is expected to be put into frequent use.

Murray High plays their first football game on August 28 at Tripp County. The first home game will be on September 11 with Memphis, Ky has a rough schedule lined up for the Tigers this year.

Japanese Youth Sees US Hard Way

By MAX JENNINGS
United Press International
CHEYENNE, Wyo. (UPI) — A 21-year-old Japanese college student pedaled his bicycle over an 8,800-foot highway summit in southwestern Wyoming recently, a week ahead of schedule on a 6,000-mile bicycle tour of the United States.

Stephen Teshaki Katsuyama said he planned to cross the northern United States, spend a week in Washington and another seven days at the New York World's Fair before traveling south to end his journey in St. Petersburg, Fla. in September.

A committee for St. Petersburg and Katamatsu City, Japan, sister cities, is sponsoring the trip at a cost of about $2,000.

The trip for the Sophia University junior began with a touch of the dramatic June 23. On that morning he left Los Angeles and he pedaled all night and most of two days to make the 100 miles.

Since that eventful beginning, Katsuyama has slept along the side of highways, been the guest of fine homes and suffered from fatigue and thirst.

While riding across the Nevada desert he once was forced to make a small detour around two buzzing rattlesnakes. Another time he went several hours without water in the blazing southern sun.

Riding 10 hours every day and averaging about 100 miles per day, Katsuyama crossed both the Sierra Nevada and Rocky Mountain ranges, laboring up the slopes and mending down the opposite sides at speeds up to 50 miles per hour.

He never had to dismount his three-year Japanese bicycle, even to climb the toughest hills. But several times in the high mountain air he used nose devices to facilitate breathing.

Bro. Kenith Hoover will be the speaker in a gospel meeting with the Dexter Church of Christ, beginning August 16th thru 23rd. Services will be held each evening at 7:45. Bro. Jim Hurt will lead the singing. The public is cordially invited to attend.

O.V.C. GRID ROUND-UP

EAST TENNESSEE STATE UNIVERSITY

Co-champions of the Ohio Valley Conference in 1962 and third-place finisher with a 5-3 record (7-2 overall) in 1963, the East Tennessee Buccaneers figure to be one of the league's powers in 1964. Lost via graduation were Little All-American Jimmy (Wink) Baker, quarterback, and Pat Carter, tackle, but Coach Star Wood has 28 lettermen returning and seven transfers that should make the Pirates most potent in '64.

Back to set the offensive pace will be fullback Phil Morgan, 6-foot-3, 230-pounder from Detroit; running-backs A. B. Cleveland, 6-2, 220, from Kingsport, Tenn.; David Holtsclaw, 5-9, 180, from Hampton, Tenn.; Johnny McCurry, 5-10, 185, from Whitnell, Tenn.; and Booney Vance, 6-1, 190, a transfer from South Carolina; and wingbacks Jimmy Steele, 5-10, 180 from Whitnell, Tenn.; Bill Cassidy, 5-11, 190, a switcher from fullback; and Rob-in Forbes, 5-10, 180, from Hampton. Filling Baker's shoes at quarterback will be Coach Wood's toughest job. Returning lettermen are senior Walter Wolfe, and junior Dave McCaslin, and transfers include Larry Houston (Tennessee) and Dick Kucharski (Iowa).

Four lettermen and a transfer will be battling red shirts and frosh for the end spots. Currently leading the race are vets Gary Wirth, Larry Conyers, Laverne Darnon and Pete Hunt, with Tennessee transfer Wayne Waff (6-6, 240) getting a serious look from the coaches.

Ball (Gorilla) Eary, 6-2, 255, and Jim Anderson, 6-1, 240, are the leading tackle candidates, but they will be pushed by newcomers Walt Birdwell (6-3, 220), Art Cantrall (6, 225, a transfer from Tennessee), Wilbur Bishop, (6-1, 230, who lettered as a guard last season), Mike Westbrook, (6-1, 245), and Ed Gann (6, 220).

Clay Says He May Become Black Muslim Minister

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — World heavyweight boxing champion Cassius Clay has announced he seriously is considering trading in his ring robe for a ministerial robe. Clay, looking somewhat chubby, Monday said he was thinking of retiring after his next fight to become a Black Muslim minister. The Negro boxer belongs to the sect under the name Muhammad Ali.

On other topics, Clay predicted he could "beat Sonny Liston right now," belittled the challenge of Floyd Patterson and hinted he would have a "big secret" to disclose in two weeks about his romantic life. Clay, who looked heavier than his claimed 225 pounds, indicated he hoped for a decision in a week or so on the Liston fight.

He insisted he would go to Cairo to make an "Islamic" move if a date and other arrangements for the match are not firm.

Clay's Cassius conceded that he hasn't trained since he beat Liston, but said "there's nobody in the world who can beat me. If they don't make the Liston fight, I'll fight Doug Jones."

Priceless Movie Made Of Shots

HOUSTON (UPI) — U. S. Scientists are turning a stack of 4,316 pictures into the world's first and only movie film of a true-life trip to the moon.

The photographs are the priceless snapshots taken of the moon's, rolling surface of the moon by America's 806-pound Ranger-7 on July 31. William Cunningham, Ranger program manager from Washington headquarters of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration NASA, says technicians are putting

Sounds Like Old Yankees Once More

By CURT BLOCK

UPI Sports Writer

Sounds like the Yankees of old. Elston Howard wasn't trying to hit a home run—but did, and lefty Al Downing wasn't sharp—but won. Howard came to bat with two out, two on and the score knotted at 2-2 in the eighth inning Thursday night and drilled a Gary Peters' curve ball 410 feet into the left-center field bullpen at Yankee Stadium to give the Yankees a 5-2 victory over the White Sox.

"You don't go for a homer in that situation," the American League's most valuable player of 1963 said afterward. "I just wanted a base hit to win it but I knew it was gone when I hit it."

Pitches Complete Game Downing went all the way, as Peters did, and was reached for 10 hits, the most he has allowed in any game this season.

"I've had better stuff. I wasn't as sharp as I've been in some other games," the 24-year-old southpaw explained while making it clear he was pleased with the victory. "I didn't have my good fast ball and I couldn't get the ball here I wanted it at times."

The defeat dropped the White Sox three games behind the pennant-hopful Baltimore Orioles. Baltimore crushed Boston 7-1. Minnesota defeated Detroit 6-3, and the National League leading Philadelphia Phillies suffered a 3-1 setback at the hands of the Chicago Cubs in Thursday's only other major league action.

Take Quick Lead

The Orioles jumped on Boston starter Bill Monbouquette for five runs in the first inning and then coasted to victory behind the combined five-hit pitching of Robin Roberts and Stu Miller. Brooks Robinson belted his 17th homer of the campaign to highlight the five run uprising. The final two Baltimore runs scored in the fourth on an infield grounder with the bases loaded as the Red Sox were caught napping.

The Twins scored all their runs in the first two innings as Camilo Pascual picked up his 12th victory in 21 decisions. Rookie Tony Oliva had two hits, including his 27th homer, to hike his league-leading batting average to .335. Cub rightshander Ernie Broglio stopped the Phils on three hits for his fourth consecutive win. Ernie Banks had a homer for Chicago in the second and the Cubs added two more in the third on three singles, an error and a double play. The loss cut Philadelphia's lead to 3½ games over idle San Francisco.

Dear Abby . . .

HE'S CERTAINLY THOUGHTLESS!

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Our son never was very good about writing, so when he went into the service we didn't expect too much in the way of mail from him. After we didn't get one line from him in over six months we got in touch with the American Red Cross, and they sent word to us that our son had been discharged three months ago. Isn't the Army supposed to send a boy home after he's been discharged? I am sure they are. So why didn't they send ours home? We are worried.

A MOTHER
DEAR MOTHER: When a serviceman is discharged his transportation home is paid, but nobody "takes" him there. The Army is not responsible for a man once he is discharged. Don't worry. A son who doesn't write home once in six months is probably in good health somewhere, enjoying himself. He'll turn up.

DEAR ABBY: Should the man who CATCHES the fish have to clean them before bringing them home? Or should his wife clean them?

LOVES TO FISH
DEAR ABBY: If the man fishes for sport, he should be a good sport and clean them himself. But no fisherman will clean fish if he's caught a sucker.

DEAR ABBY: My daughter and her fiancé made an appointment to have a talk with our clergyman about plans for their forthcoming marriage. When they came back, they were both disgusted. The first thing the clergyman asked my daughter was, "Are you pregnant?" She most certainly was not, but

Rev. William Quincy Scruggs of Paris, Tenn., uncle of the bride-elect, will perform the ceremony at seven o'clock in the evening.

Miss Calvin Key, organist, and Bill Scruggs, cousin of the bride-elect, will present a program of musical music.

John W. Jones will serve as best man for his brother, Robert, who will be the officiant.

All relatives and friends of both families are cordially invited to attend.

even if she had been. I don't think it would have been any of his business. I thought clergymen were supposed to discuss the teachings of the Bible, and the proper execution of the sacraments. If this is something new, maybe we should have doctors of medicine in the pulpit, I would like your comments.

ALSO DISGUSTED
DEAR ALSO: Clergymen are people even as you and I. There are some had apples in the liturgical barrel just as there are in other barrels, so don't judge all clergymen by yours. He should be reported to his immediate superior.

CONFIDENTIAL TO WALLY IN HUNTSVILLE: You place too much emphasis on money. "Money never made a man happy yet, nor will it. There is nothing in its nature to produce happiness. The more a man has, the more he wants. Instead of its filling a vacuum, it makes one."
